Message for the Humanity

Father God

I am the Father, the Father God who is inside and outside you, who all creates and all produces.

You finally reached Me through the purity of your heart and I wish to communicate because everyone can have the maximum by events and situations that there are on Planet Earth.

I communicate to the whole humanity that the times are getting shorter to redeem themselves, to think again for loving and connecting.

I believe that inside of you there is all the necessary to be able to do it but you have difficulties to look inside yourselves and to make yourselves questions and to give yourselves answers.

I inform you that the reality is not what appears but that which exists behind the appearance, don't let you stop from what you see, but listen, listen deeply your hearth.

I am here in this land so propitious for communications to send you a message that brings inner peace and solution to your issues.

I inform you that the energy of love is suffused on everywhere on Earth, but you, what man is capable of seeing, is always the manifestation of power, but please know that under each power there is love and if you succeeded in removing the first layer you will find love, why don't you believe this?

Why do you always highlight what is not going well to produce even more fear, doubts and uncertainties?

I speak today because there is the necessity for the humankind to believe again on itself, that brings love and alliance.

It began the time that produces conjunction, that produces manifestation and so all of you will be able to see how much it is possible to give a turning to your own life but a turning that is conducted by love and by respect both for you and for the others.

I today manifest Myself so that you can understand that I am inside of you and you are part of Me and so what all this produces?

The awareness that each of you is the perfection.

What it is useful to change is the manifestation of the perfection, you are perfect ones, you are divine ones, you are part of Me, but fear, uncertainties and doubts bring the manifestation of this last energy.

I today inform you of the possibility to go beyond the self, to go beyond all that you see and to go straight to your divinity.

Divinity meant as an evolving process that all of you are making together with Mother Earth.

The questions are:

Why am I on the Earth in this period?

Why today there is a possibility that there was not before?

And I, what do I make about this possibility?

I take it, I become conscious of it and I manifest it and then I wonder:

Why all these conflicts bring alteration inside me?

And I reply:

The conflicts come from energies that don't belong to you but you leave the doors opened so that they can enter.

And if instead you will let the energy of the Divinity in, nothing, nothing and nobody will be able to enter inside you.

Is this a decision that I have taken to raise all those people who still don't think, don't know and don't recognize themselves in their own divinity, but if all of you are Me and I am you what still flusters you?

To believe it?

To act according to this believe?

The little confidence you have in yourselves?

Today there is an emanation on Earth that bring an energy of union, of alliance and peace.

And you will say to me: from all that we see, we don't see all these qualities and I tell you once again that they are inside you, they are hidden in you and I, that I can see the manifestation of Myself, I say:

Man wake up, it is the time to resume your divinity, to bring her on the surface, to get closer to your brother and all together to create an energy of connection, of union, that brings the facilitation of your daily life.

Are there still doubts?

Well do we start then to make ourselves other questions?

Why I, being able to make apparently impossible things when I believe in my divinity everything manifests, produces and occurs?

Why do you believe that only the monetary energy is the one that can buy everything?

But what is your soul asking you?

She is asking you the possibility to manifest herself through union, alliance between brother and brother, without worrying about the differences between one another, sending away the antagonism so that everything will go back to that harmony with whom the Creation was designed.

I am to you to wake you up from the dark, the dark meant as the situation in which is one who is not able to open up his eyes because he is still a sleeper and so today I tell you:

The sun is shining also for you, the energy of all the Planets of your solar system are all allies, you can wake up open your eyes and see the truth.

And so I am He whom you can imagine as an Energy of awakening, an Energy that brings consciousness in all of you of what you are and of who you can be if you recognize yourselves.

In the moment of recognition, in the moment of the action meant for the evolution of all terrestrial people as, the more one will work on himself, the more he will recognize that I am inside you, everything will bring lightness and manifestation.

Don't let that the things that happen and that have been karmically chosen are seen by you like adversities, but see all as the possibility to balance all your expression in the good and in the evil.

The evil meant as the lack of recognition of your qualities and of your potentials, so I would say that it is now the precise movement to go beyond the borders, to go beyond all that divides, to reconnect in love, in peace and in fraternity.

It is an important day for Anna because she managed to go beyond all her fears, all her doubts and all her uncertainties, with the strength of going beyond the mind, to let it be silent and don't ask anymore, by going forward with faith and inner peace.

And I am in the possibility of entering the hearths of many people if they would let me in because I am already inside of them but, if they are not conscious about this, they will not be able to communicate with me.

I open all the Cosmic possibilities of interaction for the communication with the Father God your essence and you My Essence.

Think at the sweetness of knowing that it is all already inside you and so you will not have anymore to run much, to chase and skip from one thing to the other.

I ask you: stop for a moment, be with yourselves so that you are able to recognize Me and so that I can let Me be recognized by you.

You see it is a way that has been inserted, a process of speeding up, but this process of speeding up is not toward the outside but toward the inside.

You took the wrong direction, and so I am here to inform you that all is the manifestation of a conjunction between Earth and Sky, so that there will not be divisions in any plan that you enter.

It is important that you understand this, there are no divisions in any plan, in any frequency, in any fraction of communication; if everything is connected why are you not?

If all the Creation is connected why do you think to be disconnected one by the other?

This is a question that it is useful you make to yourself, I make it to you to help you understand that everything is connected even if man engages divisions, competitions, in conceiving always things that divide and that don't take into account that it is not possible to divide what is already connected.

This is My message, My message for the all the humanity so that humanity becomes conscious that the doors of communication are opened, that everything goes toward one unique direction, the direction of recognizing themselves as being divine beings and for this reason part of Me and so I am part of you.

At this point you will not go much outside and around to seek as it would be useful that you stop yourselves, you stop for a while to appreciate all that you already are.

This message is meant to help you being finally in harmony with yourselves,
So that everything can be and not appear,

So that everyone can finally find inside themselves what they are looking for.

Think about how could be beautiful and satisfactory your life in this dimension if you succeed in going inside instead of outside.

The outside will then be useful, it will be useful because you will see it from another point of view because you will understand certain things that you couldn't decipher because everything is light, everything is energy and I wish you, as I believe in you, that you can really be yourselves both inside and outside, to produce connections of alliance, of inner peace and harmony.

Everything that is foreseen, is foreseen if man remains still, but if man moves, if man produces, if man manifests himself, nothing is written, if not by you. From the Infinite Light that manifests itself I wind you round in a Vibration of Cosmic Love.
I am here, look for me inside you.
